Naval Appropriation Bill Passed by the Senate After the Adoption of an Important Amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 2.- The House this afternoon, after five days of debate, passed the Henderson bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy, by a vote of 157 to 81. The majority in favor of the bill was greater than its friends anticipated, owing the fact that quite a number of members who desired only a voluntary bankruptcy bill, after being defeated, voted for the measure as reported. There were but two amendments, one unimportant, the other making the nonpayment of a note for tairty days an act of bankruptey.

The bill, as passed, is based on the Torrey bankruptcy bill, which has been urged before Congress for several years. It provides for both voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy. Under its terms there are eight acts a debtor can be forced into involuntary bankruptcy, as follows: First, M a person has concealed himself with intent to defeat his creditors, for forty-eight hours; second, failed for thirty days, while insolvent, to secure the release of any property levied upon for $500 or over; third, made a transfer of his property with intent to defeat his creditors; fourth, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors; fifth, made, while insolvent, a transfer of any of his property for the purpose of giving a preference; sixth, procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against himself with intent to defeat his creditors, and suf- | Secretary. It is the most sweeping extension fered same to remain unpaid ten days; sev- yet made, and falls like a wet blanket on enth, secreted any of his property to avoid the hopes of several hundred Republican its being levied upon under legal process against himself; eighth, suffered, while insolvent, an execution for $500 or over to be returned no property found.

On motion of Mr. Spalding the ninth act of bankruptcy, as defined in the bill, was stricken out, as follows: "Suspended and not resumed for thirty days." Mr. Hepburn denounced the bill as a fraud damages and costs in case the petition is dismissed, was adopted-48 to 43. Mr. W. A. Stone moved to strike out the involuntary features of the bill. Defeated-72 to 102. Various attempts to strike out certain acts of bankruptcy provided in the bill were also defeated. Mr. Henderson, in charge of the bill, closed the debate, and at 4 o'clock, under the special order, the bill was reported to the House. Under the agreement Mr. Bailey and Mr. Broderick then offered two substitutes, each for a voluntary system of bankruptcy. Mr. Bailey's substitute was defeated on a rising vote-89 to 120. Mr. Broderick's substitute, which was substantially the bill for a voluntary system of bankruptcy reported by the same committee, was also defeated on a yea and nay vote-112 to 128.

W. A. Stone moved to recommit the bill to the judiciary committee, with instructions to report the bill back amended so as to confine the involuntary features of the bill to cases of actual fraud. The motion was lost-88 to 116. The bill was then passed. Mr. Turner called up the contested election case of Thorpe vs. McKenny, from the Fourth Virginia district. The report was unanimously in favor of the contestant, Mr. Thorpe, and without opposition it was adopted. Mr. Thorpe was then sworn in. During the debate Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, called up and had passed, without objection, the Sen- the day is approaching when only such ate bill passed yesterday, appropriating $75,-000 for the expenses of the Bering Sea Commission on its deliberations at San Fran-cisco. At 5:15 the House adjourned.

The bill was then passed. Mr. Frye gave notice that he would ask to have the river and harbor bill taken up Monday. The Senate then went into executive session, and, at 5:55, adjourned.

NEW JAPANESE MINISTER.

Shinichire Kurine.

WASHINGTON, May 2.-Shinichiro Kurino, the Japanese minister at Washington, will soon be transferred to the Japanese legation in Italy, where a vacancy now exists. His successor will be Hoshi-Tori, a man of great reputation in Japan, and a representative of the liberal element in that country. Mr. Hoshi has had a most eventful career. As a young man he went to England and had the distinction of being one of the first Japanese to graduate from Cambridge ment of a representative government in Japan. As soon as this happened, Hoshi was selected as the first President of the the first Japanese House of Representatives, a po-sition to which he was afterwards re-elected. In 1889, being for the time out of favor with the authorities at home, he left Japan and made a tour of the world, spending some time in Washington and showing great interest in the workings of Congress. As for Minister Kurino, it is believed that the purpose of the Japanese government in transferring him to Italy is to secure the benefit of his great knowledge of the subject of tariffs and experience in treaty pagette. of tariffs and experience in treaty negotia-tions, to prepare a set of similar treaties between Japan on one side and Switzerland, Belgium and Portugal on the other. TALE OF RUIN FROM WALES.

The Tin Plate Industry in a Hopelessly Depressed Condition.

WASHINGTON, May 2.-A tale of the ruin impending over the tin plate makers of Wales is told in a report to the State Department by United States Consul Howells at Cardiff. The operators find themselves helpless and have dissolved their board of control, while the tin platers' union find it impossible to keep men in line, and there is no uniformity in wages. The American market is felt to be hopelessly lost, and the greatest depression is felt. Of the 491 tin plate mills in the district no less than 253 are idle, while 91 are being run on a 10 pe cent. reduction in wages, 40 at 121/2 per cent., 91 at 15 per cent., 6 at 20 per cent., 5 at 224 per cent., and 5 at 25 per cent. reduction. There are now twice as many mills as are needed, and while 4,600 men were out of employment in March, the number of idle mills has quadrupled. Even if no tin plate had been produced in America the productive power of the district would still have exceeded the world's demand. Everything, the report says, now points to continworks as are abreast of the times in turning out plates at the minimum cost can be run. A queer feature of the situation pointed out by the consul is that the Weish tin men have overlooked up to this time the possibility of cultivating the local market, and have only recently begun to endeavor to induce the house builders to use Welsh tin plate as roofing instead of the slate which is brought from Pennsylvania.

Underhand Work of Germans. WASHINGTON, May 2.-United States Consul Keenan, at Bremen, in a report to the Department of State upon the importaproportions, it is greatly hampered by many underhand operations inspired by the local horse dealers, who have united to break year no less than 10,000 American horses were brought into Germany. The imperial government has taken note of charges of unhealthfulness made against these horses,

For the Kentucky, Bethlehem, $1,569,750; Carnegie, $1,572,477.50. So that the Bethlehem company was the lowest bidder for the Kentucky and the Carnegie company for the Kearsarge armor. Massachusetts six years ago was 64,000, so, allowing for the inaccuracies of a State census, there is no special occasion for alarm. The excess of males in the country at large is a million and a half, so that there are really husbands to burn or to throw to the birds, if these figures of speech may be allowed. The trouble nowadays is not so much the visible supply as the quality of hus-bands. Women in Illinois, as well as in Massachusetts, have become more discriminating, more particular, and what is called the "co-ed" system of education has opened the eves of the ladies to the extent that they often declare that the more they see of men the more they prefer a peaceful life with their cats. One old bull was particularly pugnacious and insisted upon makvigorous lunges at the mustang were avoided A bulldog belonging to Mr. Hohlt had been viewing the trouble from afar. Finally he seemed to have decided to take a hand, so, with a run only paralleled by that celebrated spurt made by Salisbury last fall at the same park, he caught the bull by the nose and performed a few revolutions around his head as the old fellow gave it a twirl or two for luck. Having shaken the dog loose, the animal made a wild dive for him. He missed his prey, and then started for the horse. The latter stumbled and fell, precipitating his rider to the ground and rendering him unconscious. The bull then attacked the horse and killed him tacked the bull in front and rear so persistently that the animal turned his attention from the horse to the dog. A wild chase followed, in which the dog gave one of the prettiest exhibitions of racing ever witnessed. While the bull was engaged in of Mr. Hohlt saw his predicament and has-tened to his rescue. He was still unconscious, and they were compelled to pick him up and carry him to the park house. After restoratives had been applied he was brought to the city. He is at his home on South Eleventh street under the care of a physician. Fortunately no bones were broken, but he has some large and painful bruises on his person which will keep him in bed several days. He was so sore last night that he was unable to lift a cup of coffee to his lips. Mr. Hohlt attributes his escape to the fidelity of his dog, which made it so interesting for the buffalo that he was unable to dispatch the master when he had him down.
